TRAVEL AND LANGUAGES

Planning a trip in the U.S. or abroad this summer? Looking to study a new language or brush up on an old one? Are you an armchair traveler who loves to read more about other parts of the world? Attend this month's Tech Topics Workshop and learn about databases such as Global Road Warrior, Transparent Language, and A to Z Maps Online—library resources that provide FREE access to country information, travel planning, introductory language instruction, and much more.

When: Monday, May 11, 7:00 p.m. — 8:30 p.m.

Where: Library Community Meeting Room

FREE. All are welcome.

This workshop is part of a monthly series of Tech Topics workshops held on the second Monday of every month. Stay tuned for next month's topic.
