

How to Sign-Up

Sign-up near the Reference Desk and be entered into the Adults Weekly drawing!

SIGN-UP begins June 18 and continues through the summer.

Reading period: June 18 to August 17

Sign-up is free.

- All activities and events are free.
- Most are drop-in. When registration required, it's marked.

What Can I Earn?

You must sign up in order to participate. Participants get a drawing ticket for signing up and are entered into that week's drawing.

Read a Book: Earn a Drawing Ticket
How do I use that?

- Enter weekly drawings for chances to win weekly gift certificates.
- Each ticket entered weekly will automatically be entered into the End-of-Summer drawing.
- Drawings begin July 16

Read multiple books, earn multiple tickets and increase your chances.

Weekly Song Challenge!

Can you name that tune?

Name the song in the weekly Song Lyrics Poster. Correct answers are entered in the weekly drawing for a gift certificate.

Entry sheets are near the Reference Desk.

The Other Einstein: A Novel
by Marie Benedict

“In 1896, the extraordinarily gifted Mileva is the only woman studying physics at an elite school in Zurich. There, she falls for charismatic fellow student Albert Einstein, who promises to treat her as an equal in both love and science. But as Albert's fame grows, so too does Mileva's worry that her light will be lost in her husband's shadow forever.”

August 21

The Hello Girls: America's First Women Soldiers
by Elizabeth Cobbs

“In 1918, the U.S. Army Signal Corps sent 223 women to France to help win World War I. They were masters of the latest communications technology: the telephone switchboard. Top U.S. commander General John Pershing requested female “wire experts”. Men called them the Hello Girls. They were America's first women soldiers.”
